on Georgetown Heights, near the high service reservoir, formerly occupied by Presi-Rev. H. A. Cleaveland, pastor of Foundry M. E. church, preached his farewell sermon yesterday morning from the text, St. John, xvi:12-"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot hear them now."

The pastoral letter of the Most Rev. Archbishop Bailey, of Baltimore, issued last week to the clergy and laity of the diocese of Baltimore, and printed in THE STAR of Satorday, was read from the pulpits of the various Catholic churches in this District yesterday. About one hundred colored persons were taptized by immersion yesterday at the Sycamore, by Rev. Messrs. Lee and Gibbons, most of the baptized being converts to the Baptist churches on F, between 3d and 4% streets, and on 6th, between F and G streets southwest. The College Journal for March, 1876, is a fine number of this a imirably conducted college monthly. This journal, which was established in 1872, is published by a stock association among the students of Georgetown college. Its purpose is to aid their literary improvement, to chronicle the news of the college, &c. Rev. Father Boyle will discourse to-morrow night at Tallmadge hall, under the auspices of the Car.oll Institute, being one of the many attractions in their literary and musical entertainment. The former success of these entertainments and the well-known eloquence of Father Boyle are sufficient to secure a large attendance. See ad.

The Junior Krights of St. Patrick have elected the following officers for the parade on St. Patrick's day:- J. W. Considine, commander; W. H. Pitts, 1st deputy commander; C. A. The published statement that the Baltimore and Chio rallroad company are nego-tiating with the Northern Liberty Market company for the Savage square market house for a depot, is pronounced by Mr. J. A. Hoffman, president of the market company es untrue in every particular. He states that the company do not propose to relinquish ownership nor possession of the market house for any consideration. The patrons of C. M. Towson & Co. are in formed that on Wednesday, March 1st, they will open an entire new stock of spring goods, introducing all the novelties and styles of the season. Spring goods of every description, piques, large selections of black alpacas, black cashmeres, French lawns, Nottingham laces and spring cassimeres are a few of the many goods to which they invite the attention of the public. Ex-Mayor Wallach, with Messrs. Thomas

AMUSEMENTS .- National Theater .- The latest New York sensation, "Pique," will be presented here to night for the first time. The management has taken great pains to produce the piece in as handsome a manner as possible, and it will doubtless been a decided dramatic success. The costumes, scenery, appointments, &c., are new and ap-propriate, and the cast will be filled by the celebrated Fifth Avenue company. Judging from the unprecedented success of the piece in New York, and the capable hands it will be entrusted to here, our theater goers will have quite a treat this week, and the National will, in all probability, be filled night-

Masonie Temple.-The social event of the evening will be the ninth annual ball of the plate printers "union." These pails have always proved very enjoyable and success. ful, and that of to-night will doubtless be just as agreeable, if not more so, than its predecessors. The tickets, as usual, are gotten up in excellent taste, as beautiful in design as neat in execution. THE CONGRESSIONAL TEMPERANCE

SOCIETY held a meeting last evening at the Metropolitan Presbyterian church - Dr. Chester's. Quite a number of Senators and Representatives were present, together with a large audience of citizens and visitors at the capital. Mr. Ferry, president of the Senate, delivered an able lecture, in a forcible manner despicting the evils of intemperance. Rev. Dr. Chickering, the secretary, related some of the early proceedings of the society, which he said was organized by such gentlemen as the following, forty-two years ago: Hon. Felix Grundy, of Tenn., president; Hon. Thomas Ewing. of Ohio, Hon. Gideon Tomlinson, of Conn., Hon. W. C. Reeves, of Va., Hon. John Tipton, Ind., Hon. J. M. Wayne, of the Supreme Court., Hon. H. L. Pinckney, of South Carolina, Hon. Franklin Pierce, of New Hampshire, Hon. Harmon Dennie, of Penn., and Hon. Abner Hazelton, of New York, vice presidents. Vice Presi-dent L. W. Ballou made a few appropriate remarks, urging the society to go on in the good work, and look not behind as long as there was one dram shop in the land. temperance bymn was sung, after which Hon. Mr. Vance, of N. C., delivered an ad-

A "KENO" RAID -Saturday night Lient. Skippon, with Sergeants Dinsmore and Fainter and a squad of officers of the 5th precinct, raided on a keno establishment on iith street south of Pennsylvania avenue, kept by Henry Miller. The officers state that they found the game in full operation, with about one hundred participants and spectators. Agame of "hazard" was also in full blast. The efficers took the proprietor into custody and dotted down the names of such witnesses as they desired, and permit ted the others to go at liberty. The proprietor with his machinery were taken to the station-house, where collateral was taken for his appearance at the Police Court when wanted, and he was released. In the Police Court to-day Miller was fined $50 and costs.

FIRE AT EENNING'S STATION .- Last evening the members of the hook and ladder company, seeing a bright light east of the city, started for it, and on the way turned i an alarm from box 6B, corner of 6th and H streets northeast. The light was from the burning of the house of Benjamin F. Pack. ard (of the General Land Office), situated near Benning's station, on the Baitimore and Potomac railroad, a commodious frame building, which was totally destroyed, notwithstanding the firemen responded very promptly. Mr. Packard sustains a loss of about $3,500, on which there is an insurance of $1,500. The cause of the fire was the upsetting of a coal-oil lamp by a mischievous

THE BUELL FAMILY .- No lover of music should fail to hear this family of cultivated vocalists sing at Foundry church on Weinesday night next. They have rendered popular and stirring religious songs to immense audiences throughout the east in charming style. Among the popular pieces which they will sing are: "The Rescue," by Phillips; "God is Our Guide;" "The Old Blacksmith," by Hull;" "Watchman, Onward to Your Stations," by Palmer; Centennial solo, "One Hundred Years Ago," by Miss Gertie Baell; Tennyson's May Once." Tennyson's May Queen in three parts, by Miss Fanny.

DARING BURGLARY. - The residence of Mr. Henry A. Davis, 458 New Jersey avenue southeast, was entered on Saturday night last, and an overcoat and various other articles, amounting in all to the value of about an entrance through the rear basement window by removing two slats from the blind, then with a chisel cutting the leading strip which confined the upper sash, thereby removing it. But a few months since the same premises were robbed of several articles.

Har amond and Bentley. THE SOUT M WASHINGTON SUNDAY SCHOOL

The schools of the South Washington Suna School Union were present at the regu-ar monthly meeting of the union yesterday afternoon, in the Sixth Presbyterian church corner of 6th and C streets southwest. It having been announced that Messrs. Hammond and Bentley would be present, there was a perfect jam, so much so that there were as many outside the church as in. Mr. Murtagh presided, and Messrs. Hammond and Bentley were promptly on hand, the latter some time before the hour, securing his singers. Among the clergymen present were Revs. J. E. Rankin, E. H. Gray, and Dr. Noble, the pastor. After the hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour," had been sung, Mr. Hammond announced that the Fifth Baptist church had been opened for the outsiders, and appealed to the adults especially to go there, stating that Dr. Gray would condu the meeting. Mr. Bentley sang "Ninety and Nine," and "I Should Like to Die, If Papa Would Die Too," after which Dr. Rankin offered a prayer, and made a snort address; and then Mr. Hammond gave the children one of his familiar talks, and reading Romans, v. 7 and 8, commented especially on the words, "Christ died for the ungodly." An inquiry meeting followed, and continued

THE SUNDAY EVENING SERVICE In the evening another large congregation assembled at the Congregational church. The first part of the evening was spent in sing-Mr. Hammond read from the Scriptures, commenting in a lucid manner upon the different passages. Mr. Bentley sang a solo, entitled "The Armor Bearer." Mr. Hammond preached a powerful sermon from the parable of the prodigal son, after which an inquiry meeting was opened for personal appeal, exortation and comfort, which was continued to a late hour.

TO DAY The morning meeting at Lincoln Hall this morning was not as well attended as was expected. Mr. Bentley on his arrival colected the singers on the platform and announced the hymn "Sweet hour of prayer," and on the arrival of Mr. Hammond a hym. was sung, and he read a number of requests for prayer, and prayers were offered for the subjects. Several other hymns were sung and after some preliminary remarks he read several verses from Isaiah LII, and made come comments thereon, referring particularly to the effect of Christian acsociations. bringing the different denominations together, and to the touching sight of recently children working for Jesus. Another lot of requests for prayer were read, and prayer was offered for them.

THE "PRAISE" MEETING was opered with the hymn "We praise Thee, O God," and several short prayers were made by the laymen. Mr. sang "Your Mission." Rev. Dr. Rev. Dr. Rankin spoke of an inquiry meeting at his church esterday, and asking prayers for some of subjects he offered prayer. Rev. O. H. Presbrey related several incidents of con-Rev. T. Remick spoke of a number of Christians offering prayers for six weeks for a revival of religion in Washingon, and he believed that in answer to their cayers Brother Hammond had been sent ere and they would see greater things be fore the meetings closed. Mr. Neale, an elderly gentleman, spoke of the interest he felt in these meetings; he liked them because he was unable to determine from the preach ing of Brother Hammond and the addresses of other ministers what particular denomiational creed they held to. He wished Bro. Hammond every success in his work, and urged that they all carry it on, closing with an earnest prayer for God's blessing on the work. Mr. McNeal expressed his thanks for the conversation of his daughter, thirteen years of age, and asked prayers for his son.

Three Thieves Caught in the Act. ROBBERY, FLIGHT, PURSUIT AND CAPTURE This morning, shortly after six o'clock, lias Cole, a colored man, employed by Mr. A. McLaughlin, No. 1310 F street, saw three men break into the tailoring establishment of Mr. George Bergling, No. 1318 street, and immediately informed Mr. McL That gentleman at once sent a boy for an officer, and Policeman Davall, who was on F street, near 11th, responded, and, going towards the place, found one of the party named Phillip Anderson in the act of leav ing, and he was at once taken into custody by Mr. McLaughlin, while the largest of the party, Wm. Young, made a break, and on a quick run went dewn 13th street to E and thence towards 12th street, but the officer pursued him closely, and firing several shots at him brought him to a stand and took him into custody. On the approach of the officer one of the party who had been watching, named John Cooper, left in a hurry and went to 14th street, and thence towards the Avenue, where he was nabbed, and taken in charge by Officer Powell. They were all taken to the fifth precinct station. It was found that Cooper had an inside pocket in his overcoat, extending over at least half the kirt, filled with silks, &c., valued at about , and that about $500 worth of goods had been bundled up preparatory to removal, and it was evident that they intended to carry off all the fine goods, valued at some $2,000. They effected an entrance by forcing the door-lock with an immense chisel, which the officers secured. They were taken to police headquarters, where their descriptions were taken, and, in charge of officers, they were escorted to Gardner's gallery, where their "mugs" were taken. On their return to police headquarters Anderson managed in the crowd to slip away, and soon was on his way down 6th street, but at the corner of 6th and Catreets he was overhauled by Detective McDevitt, who, placing the nippers on him, returned him to headquar. About noon the prisoners were arraigned in the Police Court on the charge of the larceny of $509 worth of goods, and, pleading not guilty, were committed for the action of the grand jury, in default of giving 83,000 bail each.

The Washington Market Company. THEY ARE TO HAVE THE DELINQUENT DEALERS BROUGHT INTO COURT TO ANSWER FOR CONTEMPT IN NOT OBEYING JUDGE WYLIE'S ORDERS.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 25, 1876. Hon. Wm. E. Chandler and R. K. Elliott, esq., Receivers in Equity Suit Washington Market Co. vs. Jas. A. Hoffmann, et al.

Gentlemen:-The directors of the Washington Market company feel compelled to call your attention to the fact that more than a month has elapsed since Justice Wylle ordered and decreed that all occupants of stalls and stands who are defendants in said suit must pay to receivers the rent agreed upon for their use. On the 6th day of February inst. said decree was signed and you were appointed receivers, yet from the best informa-tion which the Market company can obtain, very few of said defendant occupants have complied with said order of court in this behalf; but remain in contempt of the order of the justice before whom they sought equity.
In view, therefore, of the admitted fact that these defendants are daily becoming irresponsible, and some of them are putting their property out of their hands to avoid the payment of these sums so long due the Market company, the directors feel compelled to ask you to request the judge to bring those delinquent defendants before the court to answer for contempt, and also that an order may be issued giving the Market company possession of the stalls occupied by each defendant who is thus holding the property of the Market company without right or compensation. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, P. S. SMITH, Clerk.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT .- Saturday afternoon Mr. John H. Steward, who resides at No. 926 O street northwest, was driving in his buggy, and when at the intersection of 17th and Boundry streets northwest, the horse became frightened and shying against the curb, upset the buggy, and threw him to the ground. He sustained a fracture of the right shoulder, his right leg was frightfully cut, and he was badly bruised and cut in other parts of the body. Mr. Frank T. Raw-lings conveyed him to his home, and Dr. D. W. Prentiss was called to attend him. It was at first thought that he was fatally injured, but although the injuries are serious, it is likely that he will recover.

DELEGATES TO THE NATIONAL CONVEN-TION OF COLORED MEN.—Messrs. Lewis H. Douglass, F. G. Barbadoes and John M. Langston, the committee appointed by the convention of colored men at Ciucinnati, Ohio, in August, 1875, for the purpose, have ssued a call to the colored people of this District to elect three delegates from each of the old legislative districts to meet in general convention at Columbia law building on the 20th of March next for the purpose of electing delegates to attend a convention of the colored people of the United States at Nash-Tennessee, on the 5th of April, 1876,

THE TREASURY ROBBERY CASES -The Criminal Court has set for Tuesd by, March 7, the case of William H. Ottman, indicted for the larceby of $47,000 from the United States Treasury, as well as receiving stolen goods. After his case is disposed of, those of Benjamin B. Hallack and T. W. Brown, both charged with the same offense, will come up, followed by the case of Charles G. Fisher, charged with mutilating court receiving charged with mutilating court records. This morning the counsel for Ott man asked a further continuance of the case until March 15th, which was granted.

DEATH OF A VETERAN TYPO .- Mr. Cyrus Davis, a printer, died in this city yesterday, aged 76 years. He assisted in running the first Adams press in Boston, and came to this city with the venerable Michael Caton about the year 1823, and with him worked the old Ramage presses for River & Co. The TEN CENTS SAVED per diem will make a fortune. Deposit in the Metroplis Savings Bank, funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

An Indian Contract Scandal Case. A LIBEL SUIT FOR $100,000 ON TRIAL. This morning, in the Circuit Court (Judge Cartter), the case of A. H. Wilder agt. Wm. Welsh was called, and is on trial-Messrs. Mussey and Hale for plaintiff, and Mesurs Davidge and Washington for defendant. This is a suit for libel, in which the damages are laid at $100,000, which was instituted April 2d, 1874. The declaration in the case charges that the defendant, in a letter addressed to George H. Stuart, wrote falsely and maliciously of and concerning plaintiff, he being engaged in furnishing supplies to the Indians under contracts made with the United States; and that his accounts at the time were pending for settlement before the proper officers of the government.

The alleged libelous letter is as follows:-

I have examined the vouchers that you sent me for my inspection as chairman of a committee raised by the missionary board that nominated the agents whose vouchers are under consideration. That signed by Chas. P. Birkett, agent for the Ponca In dians, is fraudulent, and should be sent to Department of Justice in Washington. appears that Agent Birkett was induced sign a voucher without filling up the prices, leaving that to the per-son with whom the Commissioner of Affairs had privately bargained to furnish certain supplies. The prices were filled up by A. H. Wilder, and by him presented for payment. Agent Birkett certifies that be had purchased in open market those articles according to personal directions of the Honorable Commissioner of ndian Affairs. This is untrue, as was known by the Indian agent and A.H. Wilder, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs knows that he articles were not purchased by Agent Birkett, and that he did not affix the prices. The agent did not certify the quality or the value of the articles. If parties procuring or presenting such a fraudulent voucher are not immediately prosecuted it will be impossi-ble to protect the Indian service from the frauds that so long have been connected with it."

The plaintiff sets forth that he is a good. true, honest citizen of Minnesota, and by means of these grievances has suffered greatly in his good name. And plaintiff further states that about August 15th last he sent certain supplies to Major C. P. Birkett, S. Indian agent at the Ponca agency, Dakota territory, and requested a receipt and the latter sent him a paper in the form of a bill, (and certificate of receipt of the articles.) with the amounts blank. And on the 5th of November last, in this city, he informed the accounting officers the contract prices of the articles, to the end that his account might be stated, yet the defendant, envying the condition of plaintiff, mailclously intending to injure the plaintiff intending to bring him into public scandal. he , especially among officers of the United States in charge of the Indian eervice, and to cause him to be suspected to have been guilty of procuring the making of a frauduent voucher for his own benefit, and to vex. harrass, impoverish, and wholly ruin plainiff, on or about November 17th, in the form of a letter addressed to George H. Stewart, composed and published a certain false. scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel.

THE SEARS ESTATE .- The Boston Post of Monday says: "The litigation concerning the will of the late Joshua Sears is not brought about on account of any feeling between the son, Mr. Joshua Montgomery Sears, and the trustees of the estate, but is rather the result of an amicable and mutual arrangement between them. The trustees have the fullest confidence in Mr. Sears. who has been especially trained with reference to his large inheritance, but litigation became necessary in order to determine how, under the will, the property should be disposed of The income last year was about two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and this amount is likely to be increased year by year. The will provided only for a small annuity to the son-$4,000 now, and never over $10,000-and no provision was made for the rest of the income or property. It was necessary that the trustees should get a legal construction of the will from some content tribunal, and as this seemed to be the simplest method of settling the question, the initiative was taken on behalf of Mr. Sears by the bringing of the bill in equity."

THE PENNSYLVANIA COAL TRADE.-The Pottsville (Penn.) Miners' Journal of the 25th instant gives the following statistics of the coal trade: "The quantity of coal sent from the Schuyikill region for the past week was 4,000 tons, against 11,916 tons for the corresponding period of last year; decrease, 7,916 tons. The quantity sent for the year so far is 474,490 tons, against 422,194 tons for the same period last year; increase, 52,296 tons. The quantity sent from all the regions for the week was: Anthracite, 57,064 tons; bituminous, 46,622 tons; total, 103,686 tons, against 154,324 tons anthracite and 43,843 tons bituminous-total, 189,167 tons-for the corresponding period of last year. Decrease of anthracite, 97,260 tons; increase of bituminous, 2,779 tons. The quantity sent from all regions for the year so far was: Anthracite. ,092,829 tons; bituminous, 339,299 tons; total, 2,432,128 tons, against 1,049,731 tons anthracite and 299,165 tons bituminous-total, 1,948,896 tons-for the corresponding period of last yeor; increase of anthracite, 443,098 tons, increase of bituminous, 40,134 tons; total increase, 483,232 tons. ELOPEMENT.-A special from Dubuque, Feb. 24, says:-An elopement occurred tonight, creating considerable excitement in certain circles of society. A young and prosperous merchant named Henion has for some time been paying his addresses to an estimable lady named Dibrance, against the wishes of the girl's father, but with the approval of her mother. A plot was arranged to have the nuptials solemnized to-night, and the affair was carried out successfully. While the bride's parents were at a church concert, in which her sister took an active part as an organist, she hied with her lover to a parson and was instantly married. Taking a train soon afterward, they were miles away, on a bridal tour to Chicago, when the concert was over. The old man swears vengeance when they return, but will cool down. as fathers generally do. The parties move in good society, and no weighty objection can be raised against his son-in law.

A WOMAN'S VENGEANCE. - Yesterday Mira Lehan, a young woman residing on Willow street, Hoboken, entered the First National Bank of that city and requested to see Mr. R. Idell, one of the tellers. She was shown into the private apartment and the two had a long conversation. Suddenly Mira grew very violent and accused Idell of dis-carding her. A dispute followed. The wo-man became almost frantic, and threw a large quantity of red pepper into the face of Idell. She then burriedly departed. When she was leaving she told some of the bank officials that she would shoot Idell. Both disputants are wealthy. They are old lovers, and were at one time engaged to be married. The engagement, it is said, was broken by Idell without apparent cause. The bank of ficials are greatly incensed over the occur-rence and will probably dismiss the teller.— [N. Y. Herald, 26th.

BOLD ROBBERY AT ANNAPOLIS.—The dry goods store of J. W. White, at Annapolis, was robbed early Sunday morning of about $360 in goods. The thieves escaped by means of a boat they had in waiting. They were chased by the police while on their way to the boat with their first installment of plun-der. They were fired on, and returned the fire. Officer Watkins was wounded by a ball in SUICIDE - Bruno Von Faldrea was found in Washington square, New York, Saturday morning, with his skull fractured, and has since died. It was at first thought he had been robbed and beaten, but from letters found in his possession his death was evidently his own act.

A POLICEMAN'S VICTIM. - John Regan, who was shot by a policeman, in south Boston, two weeks since, died Saturday from injuries. The policeman claims the shoooting was done to defend himself from a mob, who were endeavoring to rescue a prisoner.

A FATAL AFFRAY has occurred at Carrollton, Missouri, between J. N. Hawkins, of the Journal, and A. Kierolf, of the Democrat, the latter receiving severe pistol shot wounds, from which he cannot recover. Rev. G. I. O. B. Frothingham is the richest preacher (by inheritance) in this city. He is the son of Nathaniel Frothingham, formerly a Boston Unitarian preacher, who distinguished himself by marrying one of the richest girls n that city. The latter was the daughter of Peter C. Brooks, then the greatest of Boston capitalists. Another daughter married Edward Everett. Nathaniel preached dull sermons for many years, and his son saw the importance of becoming more sensational. The latter came to this city, and instead of preaching Christianity attacked it. This, of course, attracted notice. Being very rich, he needed no salary. All indeed that he asked was some one to hear him, and in this he has been moderately gratified. The papers have noticed him, and he has attained a moderate degree of that publicity which human nature seems to crave. As to Frothingham's preaching, it is a little of everything and a good deal of nothing. He keeps up a running fire at whatever may be before the public, from the scriptures down to Moody and Sankey. All of which he does in so ingenious a manner that he might have stood for Pope's sketch in the Dunciad .- New York Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

THE RICHEST PREACHER IN NEW YORK.

RIVER PIRATES .- A gang of river thieves have lately been committing depredations in New York harbor almost nightly, and it would seem with perfect impunity The latest outrage was perpetrated early Saturday morning, when a gang of twelve thieves, after robbing an unknown schooner, boarded the schooner Highlander, Captain Wood, lying at anchor on the Jersey flats near Communipaw ferry. Taking the lantern from the rigging six of them entered the cabin where was Captain Wood and his two boys, and, with pistols pointed at their heads, demanded their money and valuables. In the prosecution of the robbery they used great violence, repeatedly striking the captain and the boys, and smashing the furni ture of the cabin, and on retiring, fired on the captain, the bullet striking him in the mouth, carrying away part of his lips and shattering his teeth. Complaint has been made to the police authorities.

BERTHA MEYER'S DISAPPEARANCE .-- A young girl named Bertha Meyer, who resided with her parents on 3d street, Jersey City, went to Newport two months ago to resid with a family named Mensinger. The chief reason for her departure was the unwelcome and annoying attention of a man whose company she did not reciprocate. Two weeks ago she left Newport for her home and was put safely on the train by ner friends. The parents have not seen her since, although they remained up all that night and made inquiries at the depot. Not the slightest clew to her whereabouts has been found .-N. Y. Herald, 26th.

ICE IN CONNECTICUT.—The Hartford Times of Thursday says: "There is now a fair prospect of an abundance of ice for the next season. The Cove Company has filled its houses with good clear ice gathered from the Wethersfield Cove. The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company has filled its houses from Windsor Locks. The Hartford Company has done nothing yet; what it has cut has been used for daily supplies. The new company expects to fill its houses. Excellent ice can be had in West Hartford, where it is from nine to ten inches BALD MOUNTAIN.—A person just from Bald Mountain reports that on Sunday last there was a renewal of the rumbling which was heard in the mountain about eighteen months ago. The rumbling noise was very distinctly heard, and created considerable apprehension in the minds of the people living in the immediate vicinity of the mountain. It is said that the religion which Old Baldy shook into the people up there year before last has about all oozed out, and that they have pretty generally returned to cussing .- (Barmvell (S.
